

EREN LAWYERS

We are pleased to announce that

Barbara Maucher

has joined the Firm as a Senior Associate

August 2009

Barbara Maucher

Ms. Maucher's practice focuses on international corporate transactions, transnational financial and trade regulatory matters, and related dispute resolution.

Prior to joining the Firm, from 2005 to 2009, Ms. Maucher was a lawyer at two leading international law firms in Düsseldorf, Germany, where she concentrated on a variety of commercial, corporate, banking, and intellectual property law matters. During this time, Ms. Maucher also represented clients in multi-jurisdiction litigation and arbitration proceedings and dealt extensively with international conflict of laws and international jurisdiction issues.

Ms. Maucher is, and since 2005 has been, a member of the German bar. She is qualified as a lawyer in Germany (Rechtsanwaeltin) and in France. In 1998, she graduated (Maîtrise en Droit) from University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne), France (top of her class) and received an LL.M. degree from University of Cologne, Germany (with honors). Ms. Maucher also holds an LL.M. from Tulane Law School. In 2007, Ms. Maucher was awarded a PhD magna cum laude by the University of Erlangen for her thesis on international bank insolvency. Her native language is German, and she is also fluent in English and French, and proficient in Spanish.

About our Firm

The Eren Law Firm is a responsive and results-oriented, boutique firm whose core areas of expertise and concentration are financial, investment, and trade regulation; corporate transactions; international litigation/arbitration; and public international law.

In the area of financial and trade regulation, the combined quality and years of experience of our lawyers, both within and outside of the US government, makes us one of the world's leading firms in the areas of economic sanctions and anti-money laundering.

The kind, blend, and strength of our expertise and capabilities ensure that our clients receive advice, representation, and insight that protect and advance their interests.

For more information, please call Hal Eren at + 1 202 429 9883 or visit erenlaw.com